

CURSILLO IN CHRISTIANITY

Diocese of Monterey

P.O. Box 7314, Spreckels, California 93962

PASTORAL PLAN

FOR THE

CURSILLO MOVEMENT

OF THE

July 2009

Precursillo Purpose

1. To target environments
2. To select candidates
3. To sponsor
4. To prepare candidates
5. To train Cursillistas in all aspects of Precursillo

Precursillo Objectives

1. To target environments
  - A. To study Diocesan environments in accordance with our current Leader's Manual.
  - B. Identify cursillistas in our environments on an ongoing basis.
  - C. Contact the cursillistas identified in 1B and encourage them to utilize the Cursillo method to Christianize the environment.
2. To select candidates:
  - A. To identify the influential people by those identified in 1B within each selected environment.
  - B. To insure that all candidates satisfy the basic requirements to participate in the Cursillo weekend.
3. To sponsor:
  - A. To support each candidate following the process described in the National Cursillo Movement's Sponsors' Booklet.
  - B. To insure that all sponsors have and read the National Cursillo Movement's Sponsors' Booklet before submitting a candidate's application.
    - The Secretariat will maintain a stock of Sponsors' Booklet to give to the Precursillo Committee to give to sponsors that need them.
  - C. To insure all sponsors receive training to gain a firm foundation in the purpose of sponsoring, what the Cursillo movement is/is not, and the goal of the movement.
    - (1) The Secretariat will establish a deadline for candidate applications sufficiently in advance to ensure adequate preparation of sponsors and candidates.
    - (2) The Precursillo committee will make personal contact with sponsors prior to the Cursillo weekend.
    - (3) Sponsors will be an active member of a Friendship/Environment Group Reunion and will actively participate in Ultreyas. The sponsor will introduce his/her candidate to the Movement through participation in Reunions and Ultreyas.
4. To prepare candidates:
  - A. To provide personal contact to each candidate from:
    - (1) Sponsors
    - (2) Parish leaders
    - (3) Cursillo leaders

B. To insure that all candidates have and read The Cursillo Movement – What Is It? The Secretariat will maintain a stock of these booklets for the Precursillo Committee to distribute to candidates and sponsors that need them.

C. To insure all candidates have a firm understanding of the purpose and goal of the movement, what the weekend involves, and, most important, what is involved in the Postcursillo.

- Parish representatives and the Precursillo committee will have personal contact through informal interviews with the candidates prior to the acceptance of their applications.

5. To conduct periodic training on Precursillo that covers selection and preparation of candidates and sponsor training.

Cursillo Weekend

Purpose

1. To continue the education and training of the candidates in order for them to become evangelizers.
2. To provide each person with the tools necessary to bring about the renewal of mind and spirit.
3. To help people to discover and fulfill their personal vocations.
4. To provide a transition from the Pre-Cursillo to the Post-Cursillo.

Cursillo Weekend

Objectives

1. To provide an atmosphere that is conducive to the “metanoia” experience necessary to develop Christian evangelizers, utilizing the “Cursillo Manual” and other current cursillo literature.
2. To provide each individual with the tools and the method to fulfill their baptismal responsibilities as well as an opportunity to fulfill their role as laity set forth by Vatican II and to share an awareness of a personal relationship with Christ.
3. To further enhance the candidates understanding and application of Post-Cursillo tools of Group Reunion and Ultreya. This will assist them in the Christian transformation of their environments.
4. To conduct Cursillo Weekends in accordance with the “National Policy for Cursillo Movements in the United States of America.” Specifically:
  - a. Short-range goal: Bring the weekend schedule into compliance with the “Cursillo Manual.”
  - b. Long-range goals:
    - (1) Bring the team of leaders for the Cursillo Weekend into compliance with the Cursillo literature, e.g., The Fundamental Ideas of the Cursillo Movement, “...every leader should be given adequate long-term formation in the School of Leaders.”

Postcursillo Purpose

1. To renew, accelerate and continue the conversion of each individual who has experienced the weekends.
2. To help Cursillistas be the Church.
3. To provide a spiritual community through friendship in Christ.

Postcursillo Objectives

1. To bring about the Christian transformation of each cursillista's environments using the method of the Tripod (Piety, Study and Action).
2. To provide each cursillista with a means of ongoing support and perseverance.
3. To host an annual Cursillo Leaders Workshop.
4. To present a half-day or one-day workshop annually.
5. To maintain communications with cursillistas through a variety of media, including periodic newsletters, e-mail, and an Internet website.
6. To motivate and assist new cursillistas in joining a friendship group.
7. To hold a retreat for all cursillistas as a means of renewal in the movement.
8. To conduct frequent Ultreyas in all regions/Deaneries of the Diocese of Monterey.
  - a. Long-range goals:
    - (1) Set up permanent locations, times, and days for monthly Ultreyas in each of the deaneries.
    - (2) Once the permanent locations have been established, utilize the deanery and parish representatives to help with the Ultreya in their respective deanery.

School of Leaders

Purpose

1. To maintain the effectiveness of the Cursillo Movement (Fundamental Ideas # 527).
2. To provide ongoing education, training and spiritual growth for the leaders of the Cursillo Movement.
3. To intensify the living of what is fundamental to being a Christian – in each one of its members, in the Movement as a whole, and in the environments where the members live and work and have leadership influence (Fundamental Ideas #563).

School of Leaders

Objectives

1. To provide a gathering of Christians who have set out in search of holiness and who are finding their way by following and imitating their one and only Teacher: Christ (Fundamental Ideas #534).
2. To provide a community of Christians who, united in the atmosphere of a Group Reunion, seek every day to become more centered, more committed, and more united (Fundamental Ideas #540).
3. To provide a response to “the call to growth and a continual process of maturation, of always bearing much fruit” (Christifideles Laici #57).
4. To increase the participation in the School of Leaders through personal contact and inviting new cursillistas from recent Cursillo Weekends to participate.

Having reviewed the final draft of this Pastoral Plan, the below signed members of the Monterey Diocese Secretariat do hereby agree to adopt this Pastoral Plan. Adopted July 1, 2009.
